

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON CHAPTER
THE VIRGINIA SOCIETY
The Sons of the American Revolution

May 14, 1976

Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
The Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

I want to express my personal thanks to you for your very gracious participation in the annual meeting of the George Washington and George Mason Chapters, SAR, at Gunston Hall, last evening.

There is such a void in accurate information reaching the public about nearly all government agencies; those in intelligence, most of all. Your presentation was very welcome.

As one who learned Russian in the U. S. Navy years ago, I was particularly delighted by the proverbs and anecdotes which enlivened your talk.

Under separate cover, I am sending you a copy of our 1976 edition of the Federal-State-Local Government Directory published by my company. It is being sold at the Senate Stationery Room and the House Supply Office and to a number of Government departments and agencies.

Vice President Rockefeller received the first copy off the press. His staff subsequently purchased 60 copies. I felt very good about that.

Again, thank you for lending importance to our annual gathering and for so clearly explaining the role of intelligence as the eyes and ears of our democratic society in a very perilous world.

Sincerely,

Past President
